DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The Information Disclosure Statement filed on Aug. 20, 2003 is acknowledged.

Oath/Declaration

2. The oath or declaration is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application by application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because:
It does not identify the citizenship of each inventor.

3. Claim 6 is objected to because of the following informalities: Claim 6 is redundant (i.e. claim 6 is identical to claim 4). Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DeCotis (5,893,198).

DeCotis discloses in Fig. 1 a combination of a necklace 10 having a toggle 20 with an aperture, and a pair of eyeglasses 12 having lenses and a frame, said eyeglasses having hinged temple bars which are respectively capable of extending through said aperture while the necklace 10 is worn, to carry the eyeglasses with said toggle. However, DeCotis does not disclose said frame and/or temple bars and said toggle comprising materials that are substantially identical in appearance, as claimed. The substantially identical appearance among the frame and/or temple bars and the toggle creates a new look and/or style depend upon each individual rather than give a patentability weight for a new and useful improvement of the combination of the necklace and the eyeglasses holder assembly. Furthermore, DeCotis does not prohibit the elements in his device made from the same material and/or color.

Since one material has appearance properties better than another material, it would have been obvious to a worker having general skill in this art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for intended used as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Regarding claim 4 and 6, DeCotis suggests in column 6, lines 5-17 that his toggles could have an oval, ..., serpentine or other non-circular shape. It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in this art to modify the toggle in the DeCotis's combination by forming a toggle having a ring of an apertured diamond shape as a matter of obvious design choice. Such a modification would not change the scope of the invention in the DeCotis's reference.
